RAPE SUSPECT BELIEVED AT MORTON SUN.

TWO MEN MADE INDECENT
ADVANCES TO TWO
PUTNAM WOMEN

One of two men, who made indecent advances to two Morton community women Sunday noon, is believed to be the rapist wanted in Indianapolis for an attack on a housewife there last week.

The State Police Post at Putnamville reported Monday that the Post was notified about 8 p. m. Sunday regarding the incident which took place at a store in Morton Sunday noon.

One of the two men was described as wearing a red cap, a V-neck sweater, and having green stains on his clothing. He also talked with a southern drawl which was the same description as given by the Indianapolis victim.

The men were driving a green or black 1942 Ford gasoline tank truck with the words "Pipe Line Construction" on the cab door.

The truck was seen going through Rockville west on road 36. Indiana state police went as far west as Decatur, Ill., after tracing the truck to Tuscola where they lost track of it. The case was then turned over to the Illinois state patrol.

The Putnamville Post said that husbands of the two women reported the incident Sunday evening.

EXTRA!

PARIS, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The UN Political Committee overrode angry Soviet bloc objections today and condemned Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania for aiding Greek Communist guerrillas.

The Soviet satellite nations invoked filibuster tactics to forestall a vote on the four-power western resolution that was presented point by point.

Despite this, the crucial paragraphs two and three were adopted. Paragraph 2 accuses the three Balkan countries of assisting the guerrillas.

Paragraph 3 says that the situation "constitutes a threat to the peace of the Balkans."

PARIS, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Top-flight leaders of the Western European Union met in the ancient castle of Melle in German Westphalia today and reached apparent agreement to hold the Rhine at all costs.

This major aspect of future grand strategy in event of any new European conflict was disclosed in Paris.

The military meeting itself presided over by Western Union Defense Chairman Viscount Montgomery, was cloaked in secrecy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The supreme court agreed today to rule on the constitutionality of the anti-Communist section of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law.

The court granted a request by the CIO American Communications Association that the section be reviewed to determine whether it violates constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech, press and assembly.

The anti-Communist provision of the law requires that union leaders must submit affidavits disavowing Communism before their unions are recognized by the National Labor Relations Board.

Wallace Is Guest At Red Embassy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Henry A. Wallace was among the standard guests at a lavish Soviet Embassy reception celebrating the 31st anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

A large group of American and foreign officials and their wives also dropped by the recently re-decorated Embassy to feast on everything from caviar and vodka to ice cream smothered in strawberries. Despite the East-West "cold war," the annual fête set something of a record in postwar attendance.

Wallace, whose progressive party opposes the Nation's present "form" policy today Russia, was not the only representative of his party there. The guest list also included Charles C. Rohrer who ran for the lieutenant governorship of Indiana on the progressive ticket.

Acting Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett represented the United States officially in the absence of Secretary George C. Marshall. He and Mrs. Lovett arrived after Wallace's departure.

New Labor Law Is Being Drafted

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—(UP)—Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin says Labor Department attorneys are at work drafting a new labor law.

"The Taft-Hartley Act is so unfairly slanted against labor it has to be repealed," he said as he left for Washington after a weekend at his home here.

"I stand irrevocably for outright repeal of the statute," he said.

SOVIET MARK REVOLUTION ANNIVERSARY

RUSSIANS IN 31ST OBSER-
VANCE OF BOLSHEVIK
1917 UPRISING

MOSCOW, Nov. 8.—(UP)—Russia's celebration of the 31st anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution set Soviet policy today on a course of full combat readiness for protection against alleged Anglo-American efforts to unleash a new war.

The policy set forth by Premier Josef Stalin in his recent Pravda interview was emphasized and expanded somewhat in the speeches of Soviet leaders at the anniversary celebrations.

The most forthright pronouncement was by Marshal Semyon Timoshenko, famous commander in the second World War and in the civil war. Standing atop Lenin's tomb in Red Square, he said in the presence of the elite of Communism and massed civilians:

"The Soviet army must be in full combat readiness and must strive constantly to perfect itself in order to protect the Soviet Union."

He already had sounded the morning voiced previously by Stalin in his interview and by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the outset of the anniversary celebration that American and British warmongers were trying to foment a new war.

He contrasted what he called the peaceable, constructive labor of the Soviet Union with what he labeled the aggressiveness of the British and Americans.

The Soviets, he said, are willing to "work for peace and international collaboration on a basis of equality of powers and mutual respect."

He addressed his words to the massed officers and troops of the Soviet army, drawn up for a great parade through the square.

The army marched under a fleet of hundreds of four-motored bombers, fighters, assault bombers and jet propelled planes. They roared low under overcast skies, the jets hardly visible.

The parade ended with a display of light and heavy siege artillery, rocket guns, and heavy tanks. After the military show was over, an estimated 2,000,000 civilians representing factories, schools and offices marched singing and cheering through the square.

Molotov, in his capacity as acting prime minister, reviewed the parade. Stalin was believed to be on vacation.

Opposite Lenin's tomb, sandwiched between giant portraits of Lenin and Stalin, was a huge banner with the legend "Under the banner of Lenin, under the leadership of Stalin, forward toward the triumph of Communism."

The American military, naval and air attaches—Maj. Gen. John O'Daniel, Rear Admiral Les Stevens and Brig. Gen. Russel Crandall—were invited to the show. Last year the American were not invited, presumably in retaliation for the failure to admit observers to U. S. army maneuvers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (UP)—Rep. J. Parnell Thomas, New Jersey Republican, today was indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to defraud the government by taking salary "kickbacks" from his congressional employees.

The indictment also charged Thomas with violating the so-called "false claims statute" by filing three pay vouchers with House of Representative authorities for persons on his payroll who allegedly did no work.

The grand jury also indicted Miss Helen Campbell, Thomas' former secretary, on the conspiracy charge because she allegedly participated in the "kickback" scheme.

Arrestment of Thomas was set tentatively for next Friday.

Coach Tom Goldsberry will tilt the lid of the Greencastle high school 1948-49 season Wednesday evening with Bainbridge furnishing the opposition. The Pointers, however, have always proved a worthy foe for the local net tossers and this week's contest should prove no exception.

The Tiger Cub mentor said the main purpose behind this step would be to bring spring sports closer to home and also enable the local school to build up a basketball schedule of new teams.

Under the new Indiana High School Athletic Association rules, the Greencastle net teams can now play a full 18-game schedule and also take part in the annual Wabash Valley tournament, both preliminary and finals.

Coach Goldsberry said this move on the part of the school will eventually result in such net teams as Jefferson of Lafayette, Clinton, Sullivan, Washington and other "new blood" being seen in action here by local hardwood court fans.

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 8.—(UP)—President Truman looked forward to nothing more strenuous than a swim today, aware that work would pile up soon enough even at this tropical vacation retreat.
Lounging under the warm Florida sun was just about the only other activity on the schedule for the first day of Mr. Truman's two-week vacation. He eventually hopes to get in some fishing, too.
The temperature was 80 degrees when Mr. Truman arrived here from Washington yesterday and he lost no time in swapping his brown business suit for slacks and a light shirt. The President was quartered in the

Russ Bloc Puts Up Stout Fight

PARIS, Nov. 8 (UP)—The Soviet bloc put up a stout but foredoomed fight in the United Nations political committee today to stave off action on charges that Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia are helping the left-Guerrillas in Greece.

Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium, chairman of the 58-nation political committee, tangled repeatedly with Andrei Vishinsky of Russia and Ales Bebler of Yugoslavia.

After losing a series of parliamentary moves to head off a vote on the western charges against the Soviet satellites adjoining Greece, Bebler accused the committee of showing partiality.

"We cannot tolerate insults," Spaak snapped. Bebler jumped up, waved his hands and cried:

"It is my country which is being insulted."

Bebler and Vishinsky, abetted by Julius Katz-Suchy of Poland, continued in the morning session the tactics which delayed a final vote on the Balkans case Saturday night.

They submitted procedural proposals, challenged rulings by the chair, demanded roll call votes and belabored the evidence of the Greek case as submitted by the UN special Balkans commission.

"If an attempt is being made to avoid a decision," Spaak finally observed, "it is only a question of patience, and we will get it."

"I object to your making such statements," Vishinsky shouted. "I still reside," Spaak shot back.

"The chairman is supposed to be impartial," Bebler protested. Foreign Minister Herbert V. Ewart of Australia spearheaded a move by small nations aimed at a conciliatory approach to the Balkans dispute, which has plagued the United Nations since its birth.

The western powers opposed the Australian proposal. The United States and Great Britain apparently feared such moves might head off a scheduled showdown vote by the UN political committee today on charges that Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria systematically aided the Greek guerrilla campaign to overthrow the Athens government.

TOJO RESPONSIBLE
TOKYO, Nov. 8 (UP)—The Far East war crimes tribunal blamed former Premier Hideki (the razor) Tojo today for engulfing the entire Orient in war and for developing the Axis alliance which linked Japan with Germany and Italy.

A pattern of aggression began shaping up as the tribunal worked through the third day of the reading of its verdict in the trial of Tojo and the 24 other Japanese leaders.

The blame for specific phases of Jap wartime strategy was being fixed to certain of the defendants, although the fate of the warlords will not be pronounced for several days when the end of the epic-length verdict is reached.

CRASH VICTIMS FOUND
SELIGMAN, Ariz., Nov. 8 (UP)—A two-year search for a missing private plane carrying a retired St. Louis manufacturer and four others ended with the discovery of the wreckage and bodies atop a 7,800-foot Arizona mountain.

A search party returned to Prescott, Ariz., late yesterday with the remains of Arthur M. Freund, 66, his wife Hattie, son Stephen, 35, a nurse, John Coles, and Pilot Philo B. Pringle of Beverly Hills, Cal.

The wreckage was spotted Friday by a hunter, Tom Roy, who notified Yavapai county authorities.

An intensive search which continued for nine months after the plane was reported missing in August, 1946, failed to locate it.
